Elio Cozzi Honoured as Canada's Business Coach of the Year - 2018

The Professional Business Coaches Alliance wishes to announce that Elio Cozzi from Calgary, Alberta was recognized by his peers as Canada's "Business Coach of the Year".

The PBCA is North America's premier alliance of independent business coaches. Its head office is in Syracuse, New York and it trains and certifies Professional Business Coaches from across the United States and Canada. PBCA Canada is an affiliate organization, wholly owned and operated in Canada. Canadian and US Members are an elite group of accomplished business executives and past business owners who now practice as independent professionals that coach and support hundreds of small and medium-sized businesses every day, across Canada and the USA.

Every PBCA Member is a carefully selected, professionally trained and Certified Business Coach and Business Advisor that operates independently from any franchise or royalty licensing model. Membership in this premier Alliance is only available to very seasoned individuals who have demonstrated a track record of success and extensive experience in leadership and business.

"Elio Cozzi is a leader among leaders. He is a world-class business coach," said Dale Botting, President and CEO of PBCA Canada. Botting continued, "Elio's extensive corporate background and executive skills, coupled with his genuine desire to help leaders succeed, makes him one of the best I've ever had the opportunity to work with."

Cozzi was recently recognized at the PBCA North American Annual Conference held in Phoenix, Arizona, USA. This is a very special tribute because it comes from a nomination and election from among only "the very best". Elio Cozzi was voted for this award by all past award winners from across North America.
